

WANTED!

 Writers * Artists * Photographers ***
 Moviemakers * Dancers * Musicians ***

 REWARD *****

FOOD PARTY @ McDonald's FOR THE HOME ROOM
WITH THE MOST ACCEPTED ENTRIES

Does your Home Room have aspiring or established writers, artists, photographers, videographers, dancers or musicians ? Perhaps you have students who just need a little encouragement to showcase their abundant inner creativity?

If so, we invite your home room to showcase your talent by taking part in the EHS Reflections 2014 Home Room Challenge!

About Reflections:

Reflections is a National and Washington State PTA cultural arts competition. The purpose of the program is to provide an opportunity for students to use their creative talents by expressing themselves through their own original works created around a theme. The theme for 2014-2015 is "The World Would Be a Better Place If . . ." This is open to all grades at Eastlake and entries will be accepted until Monday, November 3, 3:00 pm. Entry forms are available in the Office.

Each student may submit a combined total of up to three entries in one or more of the following categories:

*Literature * Music Composition * Photography
* Visual Arts * Film/Video * Choreography/Dance.

Reflections 2014 Home Room Challenge:

Home Rooms compete each other by submitting entries to the Reflections Contest Home Room with the most accepted entries wins the EHS Reflections 2014 Home Room Challenge and team prize!

Home Room Team Prize: Food Party @ the local McDonald's!

Rules and Information About Reflections:

<http://www.wastatepta.org/programs/reflections/forms.html>
Forms available at the Office.

Questions?

Contact Bettina Thrun (tthrun@msn.com) or Khawar Ahmed (kzahmed1@comcast.net)